
In the

Supreme Court of the United States

In Equity

October Term, 1934

No. 16 ORIGINAL

THE STATE OF NEBRASKA, Complainant,

vs.

THE STATE OF WYOMING, Defendant.

MOTION TO DISMISS BILL OF COMPLAINT

To the Honorable The Chief Justice and The Associate Justices of the Supreme Court of the United States:

Comes now the above named defendant, The State of Wyoming, by its Attorney General and respectfully moves the Court to make and enter an order dismissing the Bill of Complaint in Equity filed in the above entitled suit by the complainant for the following reasons, to-wit:

I.

Said Bill of Complaint shows upon its face that the State of Colorado is a necessary and indispensable party to this suit.

II.

Said Bill of Complaint shows upon its face that the Secretary of the Interior of the United States is a necessary and indispensable party to said suit.

III.

Said Bill of Complaint fails to state facts sufficient to constitute a valid cause of action in equity against this defendant and does not state any matter of equity entitling the plaintiff to the relief prayed for.

WHEREFORE, defendant prays the judgment of this Court dismissing said Bill of Complaint in Equity and dismissing said defendant with its costs.

THE STATE OF WYOMING, Defendant,

By Ray E. Lee,
Attorney General of The
State of Wyoming,
Solicitor for Defendant.

Oscar O. Natwick,
Deputy Attorney General,

William C. Snow,
Assistant Attorney General;
Of Counsel.

CERTIFICATE OF SOLICITOR

I, Ray E. Lee, the duly appointed, qualified and acting Attorney General of The State of Wyoming, solicitor for the defendant, The State of Wyoming, do hereby certify that, in my opinion, the grounds of the foregoing motion are well founded and I believe that the foregoing motion to dismiss the bill of complaint in equity of the complainant is proper to be presented and filed and that it is not filed for delay.

RAY E. LEE,
Attorney General of The
State of Wyoming,
Solicitor for Defendant.
